School funding is still in crisis

- Despite rising pupil numbers, school budgets have not received investment reflective of this increasing demand.
- This has led to budgets being sliced ever more thinly resulting in a cut of £61 per pupil in primary schools, £83 in nursery schools for full-time pupils and £25 per pupil in real terms for post primary..

NAHT(NI) are undertaking a series of campaigning initiatives and events to ensure that politicians and senior civil servants are aware of the full implications of these cuts.

Get involved

Whether you're a member of school staff, a governor, a parent or a student we want to hear from you.

- Take to Twitter and Facebook and share your views on why more money needs to be invested in education using the hashtag #FundNIschools.
- Write to your MP using our template letter.
- Attend one of our regional events.
